WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 29.—Search was made today for a mysterious woman said to have offered $75,000 to a youth in a New York restaurant to commit murder in the New Rochelle home of Walter S. Ward, who admits he killed Clarence Peters because of blackmail, but keeps the nature of the blackmail secret. A check by the police bears out the story told them by a waiter in a Broadway restaurant that a young woman dressed in black had taken him to New Rochelle, pointed out the Ward house, promised him $500 if he would enter the house with her and shoot the person she pointed out, he told the police. County authorities announced they are investigating an anonymous telephone message received by the sheriff last night to the effect that Ward and Peters and a sailor from the battleship Utah, attended a "party for me" in a Boston hotel three months ago.

Cropping Shows Values of Hundred and Fifty Dollars Ton
in Gold and Silver

Much excitement has manifested itself during the past two days over Camp Taylor, the new silver-gold district located five miles south of Golden Arrow as a result of George Wingfield taking over control of the Storm Cloud group of nine claims.
Building of a mining camp that promises to have a long lease on life is now in progress and the first building that will grace the new district was started this morning. The house passed through Tonopah at 9 o'clock and another building will follow probably tomorrow.
A sample of ore taken from the middle of the vein and at a distance of 75 feet from the shaft, gave values of 140 ounces silver and $10 in gold a ton, according to assay sheets exhibited this morning by J. Grant Crumley who is interested with Mr. Wingfield in the purchase of this property.

The point where the discovery was made is close to the contact and the fact that such high values are contained in surface croppings is pleasing indeed to all interested in the new district.
Samples taken from two other points on the vein gave values of $3 and $2.90 respectively.
Large development is promised and the main shaft is to be sunk with all possible speed in order to determine the persistency of the shoot. As depth is secured the vein gains in width and richness and mining men agree that the outlook for a substantial boom is most promising.

WATER AT CEMETERY.

Water will be furnished those desiring same at the cemetery tomorrow. Ben Hegdriks will be on hand with the water wagon, confining his activities to the new burial grounds.

HAROLD KIND IS CALLED TO LAST REWARD

Demise of Former Tonopah Boy
Universally Regretted Among His Many Friends

Harold L. Kind, one of the best known and best liked young men who ever resided in Tonopah, died last night in a Newark, N. J., hospital following an illness of three months. The news of the death of this most estimable young man, who was a native son of Nevada, was received with deep feelings of regret by a multitude of people, both at Tonopah and Eureka, where he had resided all his life up until four years ago, when he left for San Francisco, a few months later, joining the United States fighting forces, being assigned to headquarters of the 159th infantry.
Harold Kind served one year overseas, returning a few months following the signing of the armistice on November 11, 1918. He then located in Newark, N. J., entering into an advertising partnership with his brother-in-law Herbert Goldsmith, the firm enjoying a liberal and wealthy clientele.
Harold Kind was the recipient of the best medical talent to be secured, and during his illness of three months was attended by his mother who watched over him most tenderly. At the time of his death his brother, J. Clarence Kind, was present, having left here about two weeks ago upon receiving word that his condition was dangerous and that little hope was held out for his recovery.

Harold Kind was 28 years and was born at Eureka, and when 11 years of age was brought to Tonopah with his parents. Here he attended the public schools, and as he grew to manhood he held a responsible position with the Tonopah Banking Corporation until 1918, when he resigned to go to San Francisco. Shortly after his arrival in that city the call to the colors was issued and he immediately volunteered his services, serving with credit to himself and his beloved country.

Harold Kind was a dutiful son, a good brother and a true friend, and his passing is sincerely mourned by all his friends and acquaintances. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Henry Kind; three brothers, J. Clarence, Leon and Fred Kind, all of Tonopah; and two sisters, Mrs. Mae Goldsmith, of Newark, and Mrs. A. N. Mayer of San Francisco.

The body will be taken to San Francisco, accompanied by the mother and J. Clarence Kind, and interment will take place in the family plot at "Home of Peace" cemetery beside that of the father, Henry Kind, who died in 1906 in Tonopah. Upon advice being received in Tonopah concerning the date of the arrival of the funeral party from the east it is probable that Leon and Fred Kind, the brothers in Tonopah will leave for the coast city.

Harold Kind was a member of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks at Newark, N. J.

HIGHEST COURT RULES AGAINST
RAIL MERGER

Ownership of Central Pacific
Is Ruled Unlawful by the
U. S. Supreme Court

DISSOLUTION IS THE ORDER

Government Contended It Presented One of the Darkest
Pages in History

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 29.—The government won in the supreme court in the suit to have the Southern Pacific ownership of the Central Pacific railway declared unlawful. The court, in deciding the case, the last of the great trust dissolution suits brought to the supreme court, reversed the decision of the federal court in Utah which had held against the government.

The Southern Pacific case brought to the attention of the supreme court the control by a Kentucky corporation of the Central Pacific and Southern Pacific railway companies is alleged violation of the Pacific railroad and Sherman anti-trust laws.
The government declared in argument it presented "one of the darkest pages in American railroad history." Although the oldest consolidation was the last of the railroad merger cases to be decided by the supreme court. Originating in 1889 when the Southern Pacific, five years before the enactment of the Sherman law in 1890, it is alleged to have brought under the prohibitions of that law into stock ownership in 1899.

The cases presented many unique features, and during oral argument counsel refreshed the memory of the court of the heyday of American railroad reorganization and financing, when in the late '80s and early '90s the "big four" consisting of Leland Stanford, Collis P. Huntington, Mark Hopkins and Charles Crocker and other railroad builders who had graced the middle and Pacific west with iron hands, contested with Edward H. Harriman and other railroad "Napoleons" in rearranging the railroad maps.
